

What Others Are Saying about Broad Universe...

"Working with the energy, commitment, and imaginative ambition of Broad Universe is a privilege and a pleasure, and hugely invigorating to these old bones. Time was, I had to go to a lot of SF conventions to find out about work by women, and to get to know my up-and-coming female colleagues and fans. Now we've got a network going that positively sparks with ideas and the eagerness to make some badly needed changes around here."

—Suzy Charnas, author of The Conqueror's Child, The Vampire Tapestry and others

"Because thousands of male, female, and otherwise gendered readers of science fiction and fantasy are oblivious to the existence of remarkable works by women writers, the creation of Broad Universe can be as important for gender equality in science fiction and fantasy as the publication of Joanna Russ's 'When It Changed,' and the creation of the James D. Tiptree award."

—Laurie J. Marks, author of Fire Logic, Earth Logic and others

"Women writers everywhere owe Broad Universe a hearty vote of thanks for taking on the difficult task of identifying our needs in science fiction and fantasy, and trying to find positive ways to meet those needs."

—Suzette Haden Elgin, author of The Ozark Trilogy and others

"What can be better than women helping women? Wonderful resources and a connective support only women can give one another."

—Kim Richards, author of Aiko and The Death of Jabari

"The marketing advice I find in the Broadsheet may change my life!"

—Louise Marley, author of The Marquisarde, The Terrorists Of Iruстан and others

"I'm proud to be a founding member!"

—Cynthia Ward, Market Maven for Speculations

Broad Universe

is an organization with the primary goal of promoting science fiction, fantasy, and horror written by women. Anyone excited about that project is welcome to join us.

WHAT'S BROAD UNIVERSE?

Broad Universe

www.broaduniverse.org

Broad Universe is an exciting new organization...

...of readers, writers, editors and reviewers whose mission is to celebrate and help promote the work of women who are selling their science fiction, fantasy and horror works, to assist such writers in their careers, and to nurture new writers seeking to sell their work.

We join ranks with Sisters in Crime...

...which promotes women authors in the mystery field, and Women Writing the West, which celebrates stories of the women's West.

We're Broads because...

...we're not ladies. A lady would never self-promote. She would not speak on a panel. She'd be in the back of the audience nodding politely and not saying a word. Heck, a lady wouldn't even write this stuff. Being a broad means we're intelligent, entertaining professionals who speak on panels and write what's on our minds and in our hearts.
